Registration requirements

Proponents may only register and submit one Bid per Project. Proponents must not submit a Duplicative Bid. A Bid will be considered a Duplicative Bid if, as described in Section 5.2.2 of the Tender Guidelines, it is in respect of essentially the same Project as another Bid from the same Proponent or its Associates and only has changes to the configuration or design (such as Registered Capacity). If a Proponent submits Bids that are considered by AEMO to be Duplicative Bids, AEMO will accept the compliant Bid that was submitted last, and any other Bids will be rejected.

How to complete this Registration Form

Proponents must register a SmartyFile account to complete this Registration Form. Proponents that have created a SmartyFile organisation profile may assign multiple team members as users for their organisation with different access levels, enabling collaboration on submissions. For more information on setting up your organisation's SmartyFile profile, visit the SmartyFile Help Page.

Proponents that choose not to set up a SmartyFile organisation profile may complete this Registration Form using a single login. In this instance, we recommend downloading a PDF version of the Registration Form to allow content to be developed in parallel. For further assistance, download the SmartyGrants help guide for Proponents or refer to the SmartyGrants Proponent FAQs.

Once this Registration Form has been submitted, you will receive updates and relevant information to support your participation in the Tender 9 Process. You will also be issued a submission number, which should be included in the subject line of all future correspondence regarding your Bid.

If Proponents wish to change their Bid, they should comply with the processes outlined in the Tender Guidelines.
